MOTION FOR AN ORDER UNDER FEDERAL
RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 9019(a) APPROVING THE STIPULATION SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS AGAINST CARMEN KENT

Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") of the substantively consolidated estate of Agape World, Inc., et al., by his attorneys SilvermanAcampora LLP, respectfully submits this motion (the "Motion") under 11 U.S.C. §105 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019(a) for entry of an Order (attached as Exhibit 1) approving the settlement of the Trustee's claims against Carmen Kent (the "Defendant") as memorialized in the Stipulation (i) Settling the Trustee's Claims; and (ii) Directing the Clerk of the Court to Close the Adversary Proceeding (the "Stipulation"), which is attached as Exhibit 2. All parties are encouraged to review the Stipulation in its entirety for the specific terms of the settlement.

Background

1. On February 5, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors ("the Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

2. On February 9, 2008, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

3. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

4. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

5. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

6. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, "Agape" or the "Debtors").

7. Thereafter, pursuant to an Order of this Court dated April 21, 2009 (Docket No. 106), the Trustee retained Navigant Consulting Inc. ("Navigant") to, among other things, conduct a forensic analysis of Agape's books and records.

8. Based upon Navigant's analysis, the Trustee determined that Defendant received certain transfers, net of deposits into Agape, totaling One Hundred Fifteen Thousand One Hundred Ten and 26/100 ($115,110.26) Dollars from the Debtors prior to the Petition Date.

9. The Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding (Adv. Pro. No. 10-08984) (the "Adversary Proceeding") against Defendant by the filing of a complaint (the "Complaint"), asserting that certain transfers, net deposits into the Debtors, totaling One Hundred Fifteen Thousand One Hundred Ten and 26/100 ($115,110.26) Dollars (the "Net Transfers") made by the Debtors to Defendant, are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 502, 544, 548, 550, and 551, New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§273, 274, 275, 276, and 276-a, and New York common law (the "Trustee's Claims").

10. Defendant interposed an answer to the Complaint asserting general denials and several affirmative defenses..

11. Thereafter, the Parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claims and the defenses asserted by Defendant, during which Defendant demonstrated her inability to satisfy any meaningful portion of any judgment that might be entered after trial.

12. Defendant has offered to pay Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims, on the condition that she allowed to fund the settlement with the funds currently being held by the United States government as collateral for her son, Anthony Massaro's bail.¹

13. Based the Trustee's review of all documentation related to the Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, including but not limited to the financial wherewithal of Defendant, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims.

14. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Trustee submits that accepting Defendant's offer to remit the Settlement Sum in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims is a reasonable exercise of the Trustee's business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors' estate.

¹ Mr. Massaro has pled guilty and is awaiting sentencing. The bail proceeds are to be returned to Defendant after sentencing, at which time, she will have 30 days to turn the Settlement Sum over to the Trustee. In the event that the Settlement Sum is not remitted within 30 days of her receipt of the bail proceeds, the Trustee shall be entitled to have judgment entered in amount of the Net Transfers.

Settlement

15. The Trustee has determined that settling this matter for the Settlement Sum is the most economical and efficient way to realize a meaningful recovery for the creditor's benefit without incurring additional legal fees and the risks inherent with prosecuting the Trustee's Claims and collecting on any resulting judgment efforts.

Basis for Relief Requested

16. Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") governs the approval of compromises and settlements, and provides as follows:

On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

17. In approving the compromise and settlement, the Court is required to make an "informed and independent judgment" as to whether the compromise and settlement is fair and equitable based on an:

[e]ducated estimate of the complexity, expense, and likely duration of such litigation, the possible difficulties of collecting on any judgment which might be obtained, and all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise. Basic to this process in every instance, of course, is the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.²

18. In making its determination on the "propriety of the settlement," the Court should consider whether the proposed settlement is in the "best interest of the estate."³ As stated in

² In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d 452, 462 n.15 (2d Cir. 2007) (quoting Protective Committee for Independent Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-425, reh'g denied, 391 U.S. 909 (1968)). See In re Arrow Air, Inc., 85 B.R. 886, 891 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 1988); In re Bell & Beckwith, 77 B.R. 606, 611 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio), aff'd, 87 B.R. 472 (N.D. Ohio 1987); Cf. Magill v. Springfield Marine Bank (In re Heissinger Resources Ltd.), 67 B.R. 378, 383 (C.D. Ill. 1986) ("the law favors compromise").

³ Handler v. Roth (In re Handler), 386 B.R. 411, 420 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2007) (quoting In re Adelphia Communications Corp., 327 B.R. 143, 158 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2005)); Depo v. Chase Lincoln First Bank, N.A. (In re Depo), 77 B.R. 381, 383 (N.D.N.Y. 1987), aff'd, 863 F.2d 45 (2d Cir. 1988).

Arrow Air, the "approval of [a] proposed compromise and settlement is a matter of this Court's sound discretion."⁴ In passing upon a proposed settlement, "the bankruptcy court does not substitute its judgment for that of the trustee."⁵ The bankruptcy court is not required "to decide the numerous questions of law and fact raised by [objectors] [R]ather [the Court should] canvass the issues and see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."⁶ In passing upon the reasonableness of a proposed compromise, the Court "may give weight to the opinions of the Trustee, the parties and their counsel."

19. The Second Circuit in *In re Iridium Operating LLC*⁷ outlined the following seven factors (the "Iridium Criteria") to be considered by a court in deciding whether to approve a compromise or settlement:

- i. the balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's present and future benefits;
- ii. the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay, including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment if the settlement is not approved;
- iii. the paramount interest of the creditors, including the proportion of class members who do not object to or who affirmatively support the settlement;
- iv. whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- v. the competency and experience of the counsel who support the proposed settlement;
- vi. the relative benefits to be received by individuals or groups within the class; and

⁴ Arrow Air, supra, 85.B.R. at 891.

⁵ In re Depo, 77 B.R. at 384 (citations omitted).

⁶ Bell & Beckwith, 77 B.R. at 612; see also In re Handler, 386 B.R. at 421.

⁷ 478 F.3d 452, 462 (2d Cir. 2007).

vii. the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's length bargaining.⁸

20. The Stipulation is a product of extensive arm's length bargaining and exceeds the lowest range of reasonableness consistent with the applicable law.

21. The Settlement Sum represents a guaranteed recovery for the benefit of creditors without incurring the costs associated with conducting a trial in the Adversary Proceeding. Under the circumstances of this case, the Trustee believes that if he were to proceed to trial, any recovery on account of a resulting judgment would likely be subsumed by the administrative costs associated therewith.

22. The Parties are represented by competent and experienced counsel.

23. The Trustee does not anticipate that any of the Debtors' creditors will object to Stipulation or the relief requested in this Motion.

24. The Trustee submits that considering the costs and uncertainties associated with further litigation, trial, and the resulting judgment enforcement against Defendant, the proposed settlement is both appropriate and warranted. The Trustee believes that the settlement is fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.

Notice

25. The Trustee has served the Notice of Motion, proposed Order, and Motion in support (with Exhibits) upon: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) Nicholas Cosmo, Debtors' former principal; (iii) Defendant; (iv) Defendant's counsel; (v) the Internal Revenue Service and other governmental agencies to the extent required by the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; and (vi) all parties having filed a Notice of Appearance in this case, and copies have been posted on the Trustee's website located at www.agapeworldbankruptcy.com. The Trustee respectfully submits that the proposed service complies with this Court's Order Establishing Noticing Procedures entered on July 8, 2009 and is otherwise sufficient.

⁸ See In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d at 462; See also In re Handler, 386 B.R. at 421.

26. No previous application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court grant this Motion approving the Stipulation and grant such other further and different relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Adv. Pro. No.: 10-08984 (REG)

STIPULATION AND ORDER (I) SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS; AND (II) DIRECTING THE CLERK OF THE COURT TO CLOSE THE ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

I. On February 5, 2009 (the "Filing Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors (the "Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

II. On February 9, 2009, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

III. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

IV. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

V. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

VI. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, the "Debtors").

VII. The Trustee and his counsel have investigated the Debtor's financial affairs, including a detailed analysis of the extent and validity of certain transfers made to Carmen Kent ("Defendant").

VIII. Thereafter, the Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding against Defendant by filing a complaint asserting that certain transfers totaling One Hundred Fifteen Thousand One Hundred Ten and 26/100 ($115,110.26) Dollars (the "Net Transfers") made to Defendant are avoidable and recoverable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§105, 541, 544, 548, 550 and New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§ 273, 274, 275, 276 ("The Trustee's Claims").

IX. Thereafter, Defendant filed an answer asserting general denials and certain affirmative defenses to the Trustee's Claims.

X. Defendant has produced documentation demonstrating an inability to satisfy a judgment in the net transfer amount.

XI. In the spirit of compromise and without any admission of liability, Defendant has offered to pay $20,000 (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims.

XII. Based upon the his review of all documentation related to the Net Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims upon the following terms and conditions, which the Trustee believes are fair and reasonable, especially in light of the costs and uncertainty associated with litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the parties hereto, that the Trustee's Claims are resolved upon the terms and conditions set forth herein as follows:

Defendant's Obligation to Pay the Settlement Sum

1. This Stipulation is subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court. Upon this stipulation (the "Stipulation") being "So Ordered" by the Court (the "Approval Order"), this adversary proceeding will be closed.

2. The Trustee has authorized Defendant to pay the Settlement Sum upon the return of the security that she posted for her son, Anthony Massaro's bail. The Trustee understands and acknowledges that Massaro's bail will be released once he is sentenced in his criminal case (Eastern District of New York, Case No. 12-cr-00357).

3. In the event that Defendant does not remit Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars to the Trustee within thirty (30) days upon the return and receipt of those funds from the Eastern District of New York in the matter of docket no. 12-cr-00357, the Trustee may, upon submission of an affidavit of non-compliance, have judgment against Defendant in the amount of $115,110.26.

4. Defendant understands and acknowledges that the Trustee's rights under this Stipulation and the associated affidavit of confession of judgment may be sold or assigned subject to further order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Trustee agrees to notice Defendant and her counsel with any application to sell or assign his rights under this Stipulation or the associated affidavit of confession of judgment.

5. The Settlement Sum shall be payable to "Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., as Chapter 7 Trustee;" and shall be mailed to the Trustee's counsel at:

SilvermanAcampora LLP
100 Jericho Quadrangle, Suite 300
Jericho, New York, 11753
Attention: David J. Mahoney, Esq.

6. Any portion of the Settlement Sum received prior to the Approval Order's entry shall be held in the Trustee's segregated "Earnest Money" account until the Approval Order becomes final and non-appealable under 28 U.S.C. §158(c)(2) and Bankruptcy Rule 8002.

7. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, (which is the 14th day after the Approval Order's entry), the Trustee's counsel will transfer all portions of the Settlement Sum being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" account to the Trustee's estate account. If the Court declines to enter the Approval Order, the Trustee shall return any portion of the Settlement Sum being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" Account, without interest, to Defendant's counsel without undue delay.

11. If the Court declines to enter the Approval Order, this Stipulation will be null and void the affidavit of confession of judgment shall be returned to Defendant's counsel and nothing contained herein can be used as evidence by either party.

Releases

12. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, and the Trustee's receipt and clearance of each installment of the Settlement Sum, the Trustee and the estate release and forever discharge Defendant from any and all claims, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature arising out of or relating to the Trustee's Claims.

13. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, Defendant releases, discharges, and waives any and all claims against the Debtor's estate, the Trustee and the Trustee's agents, attorneys, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, proofs of claim, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature.

Miscellaneous

14. This Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts, with each part being deemed a part of the original document, and facsimile or other electronic signatures shall be deemed an original signature.

15. The person executing this Stipulation on behalf of each respective party warrants and represents that she or he is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver this Stipulation on behalf of such party.

16. This Stipulation may not be altered, modified, or changed unless in writing, signed by the parties or their counsel.

17. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Stipulation, including but not limited to its enforcement and the implementation and interpretation of its terms and conditions.

18. This Stipulation shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, except with respect to matters as to which federal law is applicable without regard to any conflicts of law principles.

19. The Trustee and Defendant are each responsible for their own costs and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this proceeding.

20. Upon the entry of this Stipulation as an Approval Order in this proceeding, the Clerk of the Court is directed to close this adversary proceeding.
