MOTION FOR AN ORDER UNDER FEDERAL
RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 9019(a) APPROVING THE STIPULATION SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS AGAINST JOHNNY COLON

Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") of the substantively consolidated estate of Agape World, Inc., et al., by his attorneys SilvermanAcampora LLP, respectfully submits this motion (the "Motion") under 11 U.S.C. §105 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019(a) for entry of an Order (attached as Exhibit 1) approving the settlement of the Trustee's claims against Johnny Colon (the "Defendant") as memorialized in the Stipulation Settling the Trustee's claims against Johnny Colon (the "Stipulation"), which is attached as Exhibit 2. All parties are encouraged to review the Stipulation in its entirety for the specific terms of the settlement.

Background

1. On February 5, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors ("the Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

2. On February 9, 2008, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

3. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

4. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

5. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

6. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, "Agape" or the "Debtors").

7. Thereafter, pursuant to an Order of this Court dated April 21, 2009 (Docket No. 106), the Trustee retained Navigant Consulting Inc. ("Navigant") to, among other things, conduct a forensic analysis of Agape's books and records.

8. Based upon Navigant's analysis, the Trustee determined that Defendant received certain transfers, net of deposits into Agape, totaling One Hundred Thirty Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty-Five and 00/100 ($136,255.00) Dollars from the Debtors prior to the Petition Date.

9. On December 12, 2010, the Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding (Adv. Pro. No. 10-08960) (the "Adversary Proceeding") against Defendant by the filing of a complaint (the "Complaint"), asserting that certain transfers, net deposits into the Debtors, totaling $136,255.00 (the "Net Transfers") made by the Debtors to Defendant, are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 502, 544, 548, 550, and 551, New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§273, 274, 275, 276, and 276-a, and New York common law (the "Trustee's Claims").

10. On February 8, 2011, Defendant interposed an answer to the Complaint.

11. Thereafter, the Parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claims and the defenses asserted by Defendant, during which Defendant produced a Certified Financial Disclosure Statement demonstrating Defendant's inability to satisfy a judgment in the amount of the Net Transfers.

12. Defendant has offered to pay $13,600.00 (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims.<sup>1</sup>

13. Based the Trustee's review of all documentation related to the Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims.

14. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Trustee submits that accepting Defendant's offer to remit the Settlement Sum in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims is a reasonable exercise of the Trustee's business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors' estate.

Settlement

<sup>1</sup> The Settlement Sum has been received by the Trustee and is in the "Estates' Earnest Monies" account, pending the Court approval of the Settlement.

15. The Trustee has determined that settling this matter for the Settlement Sum is the most economical and efficient way to realize a meaningful recovery for the creditor's benefit without incurring additional legal fees and the risks inherent with prosecuting the Trustee's Claims and collecting on any resulting judgment efforts.

Basis for Relief Requested

16. Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") governs the approval of compromises and settlements, and provides as follows:

On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

17. In approving the compromise and settlement, the Court is required to make an "informed and independent judgment" as to whether the compromise and settlement is fair and equitable based on an:

[e]ducated estimate of the complexity, expense, and likely duration of such litigation, the possible difficulties of collecting on any judgment which might be obtained, and all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise. Basic to this process in every instance, of course, is the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.<sup>2</sup>

18. In making its determination on the "propriety of the settlement," the Court should consider whether the proposed settlement is in the "best interest of the estate."<sup>3</sup> As stated in Arrow Air, the "approval of [a] proposed compromise and settlement is a matter of this Court's

[R]ather [the Court should] canvass the issues and see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."<sup>6</sup> In passing upon the reasonableness of a proposed compromise, the Court "may give weight to the opinions of the Trustee, the parties and their counsel."

19. The Second Circuit in In re Iridium Operating LLC<sup>7</sup> outlined the following seven factors (the "Iridium Criteria") to be considered by a court in deciding whether to approve a compromise or settlement:

- i. the balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's present and future benefits;
- ii. the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay, including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment if the settlement is not approved;
- iii. the paramount interest of the creditors, including the proportion of class members who do not object to or who affirmatively support the settlement;
- iv. whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- v. the competency and experience of the counsel who support the proposed settlement;
- vi. the relative benefits to be received by individuals or groups within the class; and
- vii. the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's length bargaining.<sup>8</sup>

20. The Stipulation is a product of extensive arm's length bargaining and exceeds the lowest range of reasonableness consistent with the applicable law.

21. The Settlement Sum represents a guaranteed recovery on account of the Trustee's Claims. Based upon the Certified Financial Disclosures produced by Defendant, the Trustee believes it is unlikely that further prosecution would result in a net benefit to the Debtors' estate.

22. The Parties are represented by competent and experienced counsel.

23. The Trustee does not anticipate that any of the Debtors' creditors will object to Stipulation or the relief requested in this Motion.

24. The Trustee submits that considering the costs and uncertainties associated with further litigation, trial, and the resulting judgment enforcement against Defendant, the proposed settlement is both appropriate and warranted. The Trustee believes that the settlement is fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.

Notice

25. The Trustee has served the Notice of Motion, proposed Order, and Motion in support (with Exhibits) upon: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) Nicholas Cosmo, Debtors' former principal; (iii) Defendant; (iv) Defendant's counsel; (v) the Internal Revenue Service and other governmental agencies to the extent required by the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; and (vi) all parties having filed a Notice of Appearance in this case, and copies have been posted on the Trustee's website located at www.agapeworldbankruptcy.com. The Trustee respectfully submits that the proposed service complies with this Court's Order Establishing Noticing Procedures entered on July 8, 2009 and is otherwise sufficient.

26. No previous application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court grant this Motion approving the Stipulation and grant such other further and different relief as this Court deems just and proper.

STIPULATION SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS AGAINST JOHNNY COLON

I. On February 5, 2009 (the "Filing Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors (the "Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

II. On February 9, 2009, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

III. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

IV. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

V. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

VI. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, the "Debtors").

VII. The Trustee and his counsel have investigated the financial affairs of the Debtors, including a detailed analysis of the extent and validity of certain transfers made by the Debtors to Johnny Colon (the "Defendant") prior to the Filing Date.

VIII. On December 12, 2010, the Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding against Defendant by the filing of a complaint (the "Complaint"), wherein the Trustee asserted that certain transfers, net deposits into the Debtors, totaling $136,255.00 (the "Net Transfers") made by the Debtors to Defendant are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§544, 548, 550 and 551, New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§273, 274, 275, 276 and 276-a, and New York common law (the "Trustee's Claims").

IX. On February 8, 2011, Defendant interposed an answer to the Complaint.

X. Thereafter, the parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claims and defenses asserted by Defendant, during which the Defendant produced a Certified Financial Disclosure Statement, demonstrating Defendant's inability to satisfy a judgment in the amount of the Net Transfers.

XI. In the spirit of compromise and without any admission of liability, Defendant has offered to remit the sum of $13,600.00 (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims.

XII. Based upon the Trustee's review of all documentation related to the Net Transfers, including the Certified Financial Disclosure Statement, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims upon the following terms and conditions, which the Trustee believes are fair and reasonable, especially in light of the costs and uncertainty associated with litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the parties hereto, that the Trustee's Claims be resolved upon the terms and conditions set forth herein as follows:

Defendant's Obligation to Pay the Settlement Sum

1. This Stipulation (the "Stipulation") is subject to the approval of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (the "Approval Order").
2. The Trustee has authorized Defendant to pay the Settlement Sum in thirteen (13) installments (each, an "Installment" and collectively, the "Installments") as set forth in the annexed Schedule A. Defendant will remit the each Installment to "Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., as Chapter 7 Trustee," by delivering a check to Trustee's counsel at SilvermanAcampora LLP, 100 Jericho Quadrangle, Suite 300, Jericho, New York, 11753, Attn: Cooper J Macco, Esq.
3. If Defendant fails to make timely payment of the Settlement Sum in accordance with paragraph 2 and/or Schedule A, or if any of Defendant's payments are dishonored for any reason whatsoever and Defendant does not cure such default within ten (10) business days after written notice is sent by Federal Express or other reputable overnight courier to Defendant and Defendant's Counsel at the addresses set forth herein, then the Trustee shall be entitled to move before the Bankruptcy Court, without further notice upon the affidavit by the Trustee attesting to the default (a) for the entry of a judgment against Defendant for One Hundred Thirty-Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty-Five and 00/100 ($136,255.00) Dollars, together with costs, less any sums previously paid as provided herein, and (b) for any further relief necessary to enforce the Trustee's rights under this Stipulation. Written notice of default shall be sent to (i) Defendant at 203 West 79th Street, New York, New York 10024; and (ii) Defendant's counsel at Garcia & Kalicharan, P.C., 710 West 190th Street, Suite D, New York, New York 10040.
4. Any Installments received prior to entry of the Approval Order shall be held by the Trustee in a segregated "Earnest Money" account until the Approval Order becomes final and non-appealable under 28 U.S.C. §158(c)(2) and Bankruptcy Rule 8002.

5. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, on the fourteenth day after the date of the entry of the Approval Order, the Trustee will transfer all portions Settlement Sum being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" account into the Debtors' estate account. If the Bankruptcy Court denies the entry of the Approval Order, the Trustee will return all funds being held in the "Earnest Money" account to Defendant counsel without undue delay.

6. If the Court does not enter the Approval Order, this Stipulation will be null and void and none of the terms herein shall be usable as evidence by either party.

Releases

7. Upon the entry of the Approval Order, and the Trustee's receipt and clearance of the full Settlement Sum, the Trustee and the estate release and forever discharge Defendant, his affiliated entities, agents, representatives, attorneys, directors, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature arising out of or relating to the Trustee's Claims.

8. Upon the entry of the Approval Order, Defendant releases, discharges and waives any and all claims against the Debtors' Estate, the Trustee and the Trustee's agents, attorneys, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature.

No Admission

9. It is understood and agreed that this Stipulation is entered into to avoid costly and protracted litigation. Neither the execution of this Stipulation, nor the payment of the Settlement Sum shall be construed as an admission on Defendant's part. For clarification, this paragraph is not intended and shall not be deemed to affect Defendant's obligation to make timely payment of the Settlement Sum or adversely affect the Trustee's rights and remedies in the event that Defendant fails to make timely payment of the Settlement Sum.

Miscellaneous

10. This Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts, with each part being deemed a part of the original document, and facsimile or other electronic signatures shall be deemed an original signature.

11. The person executing this Stipulation on behalf of each respective party warrants and represents that she or he is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver this Stipulation on behalf of such party.

12. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Stipulation, including but not limited to its enforcement and the implementation and interpretation of its terms and conditions.

13. This Stipulation shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, except with respect to matters as to which federal law is applicable without regard to any conflicts of law principles.

14. This Stipulation may not be altered, modified, or changed unless in writing, signed by the parties or their counsel.

15. The Trustee and Defendant are each responsible for their own costs and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this proceeding.
