MOTION FOR AN ORDER UNDER FEDERAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 9019(a)
APPROVING THE STIPULATION SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS

Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") of the substantively consolidated estate of Agape World, Inc., et al., by his attorneys SilvermanAcampora LLP, respectfully submits this motion (the "Motion") under 11 U.S.C. §105 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019(a) for entry of an Order (attached as Exhibit 1) approving the settlement of the Trustee's claims against Anthony Ciccone ("Ciccone"), Anthony Ciccone Enterprises LLC ("ACE") and Anthony Ciccone Trust ("ACT" and with Ciccone and ACE, the "Defendants") as memorialized in the Stipulation (i) Settling the Trustee's Claims; and (ii)

Directing the Clerk of the Court to Close the Adversary Proceeding (the “Stipulation”), which is attached as Exhibit 2. All parties are encouraged to review the Stipulation in its entirety for the specific terms of the settlement.

Background

1. On February 5, 2009 (the “Petition Date”), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors (“the Petitioning Creditors”) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. (“AWI”), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

2. On February 9, 2008, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

3. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors’ motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee’s Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

4. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors’ substantively consolidated case.

5. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

6. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, “Agape” or the “Debtors”).

7. Thereafter, pursuant to an Order of this Court dated April 21, 2009 (Docket No. 106), the Trustee retained Navigant Consulting Inc. (“Navigant”) to, among other things, conduct a forensic analysis of Agape’s books and records.

8. Based upon Navigant's analysis, the Trustee determined that: (a) Ciccone received certain transfers, totaling Six Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Nine Hundred Twenty-Three ($626,923) Dollars (the "Ciccone Transfers") from the Debtors prior to the Petition Date; (b) ACE received certain transfers, totaling Eleven Million Seven Hundred Thirty-Four Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-Seven ($11,734,327) Dollars (the "ACE Transfers") from the Debtors prior to the Petition Date; and (c) ACT received certain transfers, totaling One Million One Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand Nine Hundred Eighteen ($1,152,918) Dollars (the "ACT Transfers") from the Debtor prior to the Petition Date.

9. The Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding (Adv. Pro. No. 10-08249) (the "Adversary Proceeding") against Defendants by the filing of a complaint (the "Complaint"), asserting that the Ciccone Transfers, the ACE Transfers, and the ACT Transfers (collectively, the "Transfers"), are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 502, 544, 548, 550, and 551, New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§273, 274, 275, 276, and 276-a, and New York common law (the "Trustee's Claims").

10. Defendants filed an answer in the Adversary Proceeding. Thereafter, the Parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claims and the defenses asserted by Defendants. Thereafter, upon Ciccone's indictment by the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York (the "US Attorney") for his role in the Agape fraud, the Adversary Proceeding was stayed pending a resolution of Ciccone's criminal case. Ciccone has pled guilty to one or more felony charges in resolving his criminal case. Further, Ciccone has forfeited no less than Six Million Three Hundred Seventy-Eight Thousand Eight Hundred Seventy-Two and 12/100 ($6,378,872.12) Dollars to the US Attorney in connection with his plea, all of which will be distributed to victims of the Cosmo/Agape fraud by way of the Cosmo Victim Fund. The Trustee and the US Attorney believe that Ciccone's forfeiture constitute a return of that portion of the Transfers that was retained by Defendants.

11. Ciccone has offered to consent to: (a) the entry of judgment against ACE in the amount of the ACE Transfers (the "ACE Judgment"); and (b) the entry of judgment against ACT in the amount of the ACT Transfers (the "ACT Judgment"), to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims. Under the proposed settlement, the Trustee's Claims will be dismissed against Ciccone. Further, as more fully set forth in paragraph 7 of the Stipulation, Ciccone shall be granted a valid 11 U.S.C. §550(b) defense to any claims the Trustee might assert under 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) in enforcing the ACE Judgment and ACT Judgment.

12. Based the Trustee's review of all documentation related to the Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, including but not limited to the criminal and civil forfeiture that Ciccone has made to the US Attorney and the confession of judgment that is being made by Ciccone to the US Attorney in connection with criminal plea, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims as described in the Stipulation.

13. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Trustee submits that accepting Defendants' offer to consent to the Judgment on ACE and ACT's behalf in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims is a reasonable exercise of the Trustee's business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors' estate.

Settlement

14. The Trustee has determined that settling this matter for the Judgment is the most economical and efficient way to realize a meaningful recovery for the creditor's benefit without incurring additional legal fees and the risks inherent with prosecuting the Trustee's Claims and collecting on any resulting judgment efforts.

Basis for Relief Requested

15. Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") governs the approval of compromises and settlements, and provides as follows:

On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

16. In approving the compromise and settlement, the Court is required to make an "informed and independent judgment" as to whether the compromise and settlement is fair and equitable based on an:

[e]ducated estimate of the complexity, expense, and likely duration of such litigation, the possible difficulties of collecting on any judgment which might be obtained, and all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise. Basic to this process in every instance, of course, is the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.¹

17. In making its determination on the "propriety of the settlement," the Court should consider whether the proposed settlement is in the "best interest of the estate."² As stated in Arrow Air, the "approval of [a] proposed compromise and settlement is a matter of this Court's sound discretion."³ In passing upon a proposed settlement, "the bankruptcy court does not substitute its judgment for that of the trustee."⁴ The bankruptcy court is not required "to decide the numerous questions of law and fact raised by [objectors] [R]ather [the Court should] canvass the issues and see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."⁵ In passing upon the reasonableness of a proposed compromise, the Court "may give weight to the opinions of the Trustee, the parties and their counsel."

18. The Second Circuit in *In re Iridium Operating LLC*⁶ outlined the following seven factors (the "Iridium Criteria") to be considered by a court in deciding whether to approve a compromise or settlement:

- i. the balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's present and future benefits;
- ii. the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay, including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment if the settlement is not approved;
- iii. the paramount interest of the creditors, including the proportion of class members who do not object to or who affirmatively support the settlement;
- iv. whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- v. the competency and experience of the counsel who support the proposed settlement;
- vi. the relative benefits to be received by individuals or groups within the class; and
- vii. the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's length bargaining.⁷

19. The Stipulation is a product of extensive arm's length bargaining and exceeds the lowest range of reasonableness consistent with the applicable law.

20. Although the proposed settlement does not result in any immediate payment to the estate, resolving the Adversary Proceeding by entry of the ACE Judgment and ACT Judgment is in the creditors' best interest. Under the circumstances of this case, the Trustee is informed by the US Attorney that Ciccone has already turned over (or pledged to turn over) all available assets in connection with his criminal plea. Those assets will be distributed to the victims of the Agape fraud through the USA v. Cosmo Victim's Fund. Accordingly, it is unlikely that further prosecution of the Adversary Proceeding would result in any greater recovery for the creditors of the estate. However, by obtaining the ACE Judgment and ACT Judgment in resolution of this Adversary Proceeding, the Trustee preserves his ability to pursue 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) claims against immediate or mediate transferees of ACE and ACT, if he determines that such actions would be in the best interests of the Debtors' estate.

21. The Parties are represented by competent and experienced counsel.

22. The Trustee does not anticipate that any of the Debtors' creditors will object to Stipulation or the relief requested in this Motion.

23. The Trustee submits that considering the costs and uncertainties associated with further litigation, trial, and the resulting judgment enforcement against Defendant, the proposed settlement is both appropriate and warranted. The Trustee believes that the settlement is fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.

Notice

24. The Trustee has served the Notice of Motion, proposed Order, and Motion in support (with Exhibits) upon: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee; (ii) Nicholas Cosmo, Debtors' former principal; (iii) Defendants; (iv) Defendants' counsel; (v) the Internal Revenue Service and other governmental agencies to the extent required by the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; and (vi) all parties having filed a Notice of Appearance in this case, and copies have been posted on the Trustee's website located at www.agapeworldbankruptcy.com. The Trustee respectfully submits that the proposed service complies with this Court's Order Establishing Noticing Procedures entered on July 8, 2009 and is otherwise sufficient.

25. No previous application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court grant this Motion approving the Stipulation and grant such other further and different relief as this Court deems just and proper.

STIPULATION (I) SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S CLAIMS; AND
(II) DIRECTING THE CLERK OF THE COURT TO CLOSE THE ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

I. On February 5, 2009 (the "Filing Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors (the "Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

II. On February 9, 2009, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

III. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

IV. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

V. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

VI. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, the "Debtors").

VII. The Trustee and his counsel have investigated the Debtor's financial affairs, including a detailed analysis of the extent and validity of certain transfers made to Anthony Ciccone ("Ciccone"), Anthony Ciccone Enterprises LLC ("ACE") and Anthony Ciccone Trust ("ACT"), and collectively with Ciccone and ACE, the "Defendants").

VIII. On June 8, 2010, the Trustee commenced the above-captioned adversary proceeding (the "Adversary Proceeding") against Defendants by filing a complaint asserting that certain transfers: (a) to Ciccone, totaling Six Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Nine Hundred Twenty-Three and ($626,923) Dollars (the "Ciccone Transfers"); (b) to ACE, totaling Eleven Million Seven Hundred Thirty-Four Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-Seven ($11,734,327) Dollars (the "ACE Transfers"); and (c) to ACT, totaling One Million One Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand Nine Hundred Eighteen ($1,152,918) Dollars (the "ACT Transfers") are avoidable and recoverable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§105, 541, 544, 548, 550 and New York Debtor and Creditor Law §§ 273, 274, 275, 276 ("The Trustee's Claims").

IX. Defendants filed an answer asserting general denials and certain affirmative defenses to the Trustee's Claims.

X. Thereafter, upon the indictment of Ciccone by the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York, the Adversary Proceeding was stayed for the duration of Ciccone's criminal case.

XI. Since that time, Ciccone has pled guilty to one or more counts of the felony indictment and consented to a preliminary order of forfeiture that will become final upon his criminal sentencing. Pursuant to the that order of forfeiture, Ciccone has forfeited assets with a liquidated value of Six Million Three Hundred Seventy-Eight Thousand Eight Hundred Seventy-Two and 12/100 ($6,378,872.12) Dollars (the "Ciccone Forfeiture") to the United States Attorney's Office that has been deposited in a fund devoted to the victims of the Agape World fraud. A copy of the liquidated assets forfeited by Ciccone to the United States Attorney's Office is annexed hereto as Schedule 1.

XII. In the spirit of compromise and without any admission of liability, Ciccone has agreed to not contest the entry of judgment against (i) ACE in the amount of Eleven Million Seven Hundred Thirty-Four Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-Seven ($11,734,327) Dollars, which represents the total amount of the ACE Transfers; and (ii) One Million One Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand Nine Hundred Eighteen ($1,152,918) Dollars, which represents the total amount of the ACT Transfers.

XIII. In consideration thereof, the Trustee has agreed to dismiss the Claims against Ciccone in the Adversary Proceeding. The Trustee has further agreed to allow a valid 11 U.S.C. §550(b) defense to Ciccone on the first Five Million Seven Hundred Fifty-One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-Nine and 12/100 ($5,751,494.12) Dollars of potential liability that Ciccone might otherwise have as a result of receiving 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) transfers from ACE and/or ACT representing the amount that the Ciccone Forfeiture exceeds the Ciccone Transfers.

XIV. Based upon his review of all relevant documentation, communications with the United States Attorney's Office regarding the Ciccone Forfeiture, and his investigation of all attendant factors, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims upon the following terms and conditions, which the Trustee believes are fair and reasonable, especially in light of the costs and uncertainty associated with litigation and any resulting judgment enforcement.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the parties hereto, that the Trustee's Claims are resolved upon the terms and conditions set forth herein as follows:

1. This Stipulation is subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court. Upon this stipulation (the "Stipulation") being "So Ordered" by the Court (the "Approval Order"), this adversary.

2. By his signature to this document, Ciccone, on behalf of ACE, consents to the entry of judgment in the amount of Eleven Million Seven Hundred Thirty-Four Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-Seven ($11,734,327) Dollars (the "ACE Judgment").

3. By his signature to this document, Ciccone, on behalf of ACT, consents to the entry of judgment in the amount of One Million One Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand Nine Hundred Eighteen ($1,152,918) Dollars (the "ACT Judgment").

3. Any funds received on account of the ACE Judgment or ACT Judgment prior to the Approval Order's entry shall be held in the Trustee's segregated "Earnest Money" account until the Approval Order becomes final and non-appealable under 28 U.S.C. §158(c)(2) and Bankruptcy Rule 8002.

4. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, (which is the 14th day after the Approval Order's entry), the Trustee's counsel will transfer all being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" account to the Trustee's estate account. If the Court declines to enter the Approval Order, the Trustee shall return any being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" Account, without interest, to Defendant's counsel without undue delay.

5. If the Court declines to enter the Approval Order, this Stipulation will be null and void and nothing contained herein can be used as evidence by either party.

6. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, the Trustee and the estate release and forever discharge Ciccone from the Trustee's Claims. The Trustee further agrees to grant a valid 11 U.S.C. §550(b) defense to Ciccone on the first Five Million Seven Hundred Fifty-One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-Nine and 12/100 ($5,751,949.12) Dollars of potential liability that Ciccone might otherwise have as a result of receiving 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) transfers from ACE or ACT. It is understood and agreed that based upon the US Government's settlement with Ciccone regarding Victoria Keenan's interest in Mission Lakes Restaurant, Inc., d/b/a Sal's Italian Ristorante #304 (the "Pizzeria") and Maureen Ciccone's interest in the profit generated by the Pizzeria, the Trustee will not seek to enforce either the ACE Judgment or the ACT Judgment against the Pizzeria. Finally, to avoid duplicative liability on the part of Ciccone, the Trustee agrees that any remaining liability that might arise from receiving 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) transfers from ACE or ACT, shall be further reduced on a dollar for dollar basis by any further liquidated forfeitures that are not listed on Schedule 1.

7. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, Ciccone, ACE, and ACT release, discharge, and waive any and all claims against the Debtor's estate, the Trustee and the Trustee's agents, attorneys, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, proofs of claim, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature.
