13. Upon information and belief, Defendant was and is a New Jersey limited liability company organized and existing with addresses at 209 West Morris Avenue, Linden, New Jersey 07036 and 2310 Homestead Road, Suite C1, #543, Los Altos, California 94024 (Attn: Fernanda Mendez).

Background Facts Common To All Claims For Relief

14. Upon information and belief, from at least 1999 to the Filing Date, Agape was purportedly operating as a bridge lender, whereby investors were advised that Agape provided short-term bridge loans to commercial borrowers in order to generate high rates of return.

15. Prior to the Filing Date, various "brokers" and "sub-brokers" of Agape, including Defendant, recruited third-parties to invest money with the Debtors.

16. Upon information and belief, the representations to investors were, in large measure, false.

17. Upon information and belief, rather than utilizing all of the third-party funds to invest in bridge loans, the majority of the investors' funds were, among other things, (i) utilized to pay prior investors their promised rate of interest or to provide a return of their investment, (ii) squandered in connection with undisclosed and unauthorized commodity futures trading, and/or (iii) transferred to Agape's alter-egos or to Defendant itself for its own personal enrichment and to the detriment of Agape's legitimate creditors.

18. Upon information and belief, between February 5, 2003 and the Filing Date, Defendant received a transfer from Agape in an amount to be determined at trial, but in no event less than Fifty-Seven Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Six Dollars ($57,726.00) (the "Transfer").

19. The Transfer was made for no consideration or less than reasonably equivalent value.

20. Agape was either insolvent at the times the Transfer was made, or was rendered insolvent as a result of the Transfer.

21. At the time the Transfer was made, there existed unsecured creditors of the Agape who remained unsecured creditors as of the Filing Date.

which any property remaining with Agape was unreasonably small capital, or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts that would be beyond its ability to pay as they matured.

(incorporating all previous allegations)

41. The Transfer was an impermissible transfer of Agape's interest in property. As a result, Defendant was the ultimate beneficiary of the Transfer under circumstances in which Defendant would be unjustly enriched if it were to retain the Transfer since Agape did not receive reasonably equivalent value therefor.

42. As a result, Defendant has been unjustly enriched and may not in equity and good conscience retain the Transfer.

43. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to the Trustee under New York common law for unjust enrichment in an amount as yet undetermined but which is equal to any and all sums paid to or received by Defendant which amount is, in no event, less than Fifty-Seven Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Six Dollars ($57,726.00), plus appropriate interest thereon.

52. To the extent that the Preferential Transfer was made on account of an antecedent debt owed by Agape to Defendant, the Preferential Transfer constituted an avoidable transfer pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §547(b) and, in accordance with Bankruptcy Code §550(a), the Trustee may recover the amount of the Preferential Transfer from Defendant, plus appropriate interest thereon.

53. Based upon the foregoing, the Trustee is entitled to a judgment (i) avoiding the Preferential Transfer, and (ii) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§550(a) and 551, may recover from Defendant an amount as equal the Preferential Transfer which amount is, in no event, less than Fifty-Seven Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Six Dollars ($57,726.00), plus appropriate interest thereon.

56. Defendant has not paid the amount, or turned over such property, for which Defendant is liable under Bankruptcy Code §550.

57. Based upon the foregoing, and in accordance with Bankruptcy Code §502(d), any claims filed by Defendant against Agape should be disallowed unless and until Defendant returns the Transfer to the Trustee.
