Background Facts Common To All Claims For Relief

16. Upon information and belief, since at least 1999 Agape was purportedly operating as a bridge lender, whereby investors were advised that Agape provided short-term bridge loans to commercial borrowers in order to generate high rates of return.

17. Prior to the Filing Date, various "brokers" and "sub-brokers" of Agape, recruited third-parties to invest money with the Debtor.

18. Upon information and belief, the Debtor, and the various "brokers" and/or "sub-brokers" offered contracts to various third-parties to induce those third-party "investors" to "invest" in the purported bridge loans.

19. Upon information and belief, pursuant to the terms of the various contracts entered into between the Debtor and the purported investors, those investors were permitted to receive payments from their purported investments in the form of “interest payments” or, alternatively, the purported investors were permitted to “roll-over” their investments to a future bridge loan offered.

20. Upon information and belief, the representations to investors were, in large measure, false.

21. Upon information and belief, rather than utilizing all of the third-party funds to invest in bridge loans, the majority of the investor funds were, among other things, (i) utilized to pay prior investors their promised rate of interest or to provide a return of their investment, (ii) squandered in connection with undisclosed and unauthorized commodity futures trading, and/or (iii) transferred to Agape’s alter-egos or to Defendants themselves for their own personal enrichment and to the detriment of Agape’s legitimate creditors.

22. Defendants were such third parties, who, pursuant to various contracts with the Debtor, was purportedly entitled to receive payments under the contracts allegedly arising out of Defendants’ “investment.”

23. Upon information and belief, between February 5, 2003 and the Filing Date, Defendants received transfers from Agape, net after deposits into Agape, in amount to be determined at trial, but, in no event less than One Million Twenty-One Thousand One Hundred Forty-Seven Dollars ($1,021,147.00) (the “Net Transfers”).

24. The Net Transfers were made for no consideration or less than reasonably equivalent value.

25. Agape was either insolvent at the times the Net Transfers were made, or was rendered insolvent as a result of the Net Transfers.

26. At the times the Net Transfers were made, there existed unsecured creditors of the Agape who remained unsecured creditors as of the Filing Date.

39. The Two-Year Net Transfers were made with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud Agape's creditors under §548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

47. As a result, Defendants have been unjustly enriched and may not in equity and good conscience retain the Net Transfers.

48. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants are liable to the Trustee under New York common law for unjust enrichment in an amount as yet undetermined, but, in no event less than One Million Twenty-One Thousand One Hundred Forty-Seven Dollars ($1,021,147.00), plus appropriate interest thereon.
