MOTION FOR AN ORDER UNDER FEDERAL RULE
OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 9019(a) APPROVING THE STIPULATION
SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S PREFERENCE CLAIM AGAINST VINCENT SOLLECITO

Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") of the substantively consolidated estate of Agape World, Inc., et al., by his attorneys SilvermanAcampora LLP, respectfully submits this motion (the "Motion") under 11 U.S.C. §105 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019(a) for entry of an Order (attached as Exhibit 1) approving the settlement of the Trustee's claims against Vincent Sollecito (the "Defendant") as memorialized in the Stipulation Settling the Trustee's Preference Claim Against Vincent Sollecito (the "Stipulation"), which is attached as Exhibit 2. All parties are encouraged to review the Stipulation in its entirety for the specific terms of the settlement.

Background

1. On February 5, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors ("the Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

2. On February 9, 2008, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

3. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

4. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

5. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

6. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, "Agape" or the "Debtors").

7. Thereafter, pursuant to an Order of this Court dated April 21, 2009 (Docket No. 106), the Trustee retained Navigant Consulting Inc. ("Navigant") to, among other things, conduct a forensic analysis of Agape's books and records.

8. Based upon Navigant's analysis, the Trustee determined that Defendant received certain transfers totaling One Hundred Four Thousand Thirteen and 50/100 ($104,013.50) Dollars (the "Transfers") from the Debtors within 90 days before to the Petition Date.

9. On August 25, 2010, the Trustee commenced this adversary proceeding against Defendant by the filing of a complaint (Adv. Pro. No. 10-08360) (the "Adversary Proceeding"), asserting that the Transfers are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§547 and 550 (the "Trustee's Claim").

10. Thereafter, the parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claim and the defenses asserted by Defendant.

11. Defendant has offered to pay $52,006.75 (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claim.

12. Based upon Defendant's asserted defenses to the Trustee's Claim and the Trustee's review of all documentation related to the Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claim.

13. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Trustee submits that accepting Defendant's offer to remit the Settlement Sum in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claim is a reasonable exercise of the Trustee's business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors' estate.

Settlement

14. The Trustee has determined that settling this matter for the Settlement Sum is the most economical and efficient way to realize a meaningful recovery for the creditors' benefit without incurring additional legal fees and the risks inherent with prosecuting the Trustee's Claim and any resulting judgment efforts.

Basis for Relief Requested

15. Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") governs the approval of compromises and settlements, and provides as follows:

On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

16. In approving the compromise and settlement, the Court is required to make an "informed and independent judgment" as to whether the compromise and settlement is fair and equitable based on an:

[e]ducated estimate of the complexity, expense, and likely duration of such litigation, the possible difficulties of collecting on any judgment which might be obtained, and all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise. Basic to this process in every instance, of course, is the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.<sup>1</sup>

17. In making its determination on the "propriety of the settlement", the Court should consider whether the proposed settlement is in the "best interest of the estate."<sup>2</sup> As stated in Arrow Air, the "approval of [a] proposed compromise and settlement is a matter of this Court's sound discretion."<sup>3</sup> In passing upon a proposed settlement, "the bankruptcy court does not substitute its judgment for that of the trustee". In re Depo, 77 B.R. at 384 (citations omitted). The bankruptcy court is not required "to decide the numerous questions of law and fact raised by [objectors] . . . . [R]ather [the Court should] canvass the issues and see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness."<sup>4</sup> In passing upon the reasonableness of a proposed compromise, the Court "may give weight to the opinions of the Trustee, the parties and their counsel."

18. The Second Circuit in Iridium<sup>5</sup> outlined the following seven factors (the “Iridium Criteria”) to be considered by a court in deciding whether to approve a compromise or settlement:

- i. the balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's present and future benefits;
- ii. the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay, including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment if the settlement is not approved;
- iii. the paramount interest of the creditors, including the proportion of class members who do not object to or who affirmatively support the settlement;
- iv. whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- v. the competency and experience of the counsel who support the proposed settlement;
- vi. the relative benefits to be received by individuals or groups within the class; and
- vii. the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's length bargaining.<sup>6</sup>

19. The Settlement Sum represents a 50% recovery of the Transfers for which the Trustee believes Defendant may be liable in satisfaction of the Trustee's Claim.

20. The Trustee submits that considering the costs and uncertainties associated with trial and judgment enforcement, and the amount of the Trustee's demand, it is unlikely that further litigation would result in a “net benefit” to the Debtors' estate in excess of the Settlement Sum. In the Trustee's sound business judgment, the proposed settlement is both appropriate and warranted. The Trustee believes that the settlement is fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate.

STIPULATION SETTLING THE TRUSTEE'S PREFERENCE CLAIM AGAINST VINCENT SOLLECITO

I. On February 5, 2009 (the "Filing Date"), an involuntary chapter 7 petition was filed by four petitioning creditors (the "Petitioning Creditors") pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §303(b), against Agape World, Inc. ("AWI"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York.

II. On February 9, 2009, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee under 11 U.S.C. §303(g).

III. On February 12, 2009, the Court granted the Petitioning Creditors' motion and entered an order directing the United States Trustee's Office to immediately appoint an interim chapter 7 trustee in the AWI case.

IV. On February 12, 2009, Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee in the AWI case, and has since duly qualified and is now the permanent Trustee in the Debtors' substantively consolidated case.

V. On March 4, 2009, the Court issued an Order for relief in the AWI chapter 7 case.

VI. On April 14, 2009, the Court issued an Order substantively consolidating AWI, Agape Merchant Advance LLC, Agape Community LLC, Agape Construction Management, LLC, Agape World Bridges LLC, and 114 Parkway Drive South LLC (collectively, the "Debtors").

VII. The Trustee and his counsel have investigated the financial affairs of the Debtors, including a detailed analysis of the extent and validity of certain transfers made by the Debtors to Vincent Sollecito ("Defendant") within 90 days prior to the Filing Date.

VIII. On October 4, 2010, the Trustee filed an amended complaint against Defendant, wherein the Trustee asserted that certain transfers totaling $104,013.50 (the "Preferential Transfers") made by the Debtors to the Defendant within 90 days prior to the Filing Date are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§547 and 550 (the "Trustee's Claims").

IX. Thereafter, Defendant retained his undersigned counsel to defend against the Trustee's Claims.

X. The parties engaged in informal discovery related to the Trustee's Claims and the defenses asserted by Defendant.

XI. In the spirit of compromise and without any admission of liability, Defendant has offered to remit the sum of $52,006.75 (the "Settlement Sum") to the Trustee in full and final settlement of the Trustee's Claims, payable in six (6) payments of $8,667.79 commencing on April 1, 2103, and quarterly thereafter.

XII. Based upon the his review of all documentation related to the Preferential Transfers and his investigation of all attendant factors, the Trustee has, in his business judgment, agreed to settle the Trustee's Claims upon the following terms and conditions, which the Trustee believes are fair and reasonable, especially in light of the costs and uncertainty associated with litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the parties hereto, that the Trustee's Claims be resolved upon the terms and conditions set forth herein as follows:

Defendant's Obligation to Pay the Settlement Sum

1. This Stipulation (the "Stipulation") is subject to the approval of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (the "Approval Order").

2. Commencing on April 1, 2013, and quarterly thereafter on July 1, 2013, October 1, 2013, January 1, 2014, April 1, 2014, and July 1, 2014, Defendant will remit the Settlement Sum to "Kenneth P. Silverman, Esq., as Chapter 7 Trustee," by delivering a check to Trustee's counsel at SilvermanAcampora LLP, 100 Jericho Quadrangle, Suite 300, Jericho, New York, 11753, Attention: Wade C. Wilkinson, Esq.

3. If Defendant fails to make timely payment of any installment of the Settlement Sum in accordance with paragraph 2, above, or if Defendant's payment is dishonored for any reason whatsoever and Defendant does not cure such default within five (5) business days after written notice sent by regular to Defendant and Defendant's counsel at the addresses set forth herein, then the Trustee shall be entitled to move before the Bankruptcy Court, without further notice and upon the affidavit by the Trustee attesting to the default (a) for the entry of a judgment against Defendant for One Hundred Four Thousand Thirteen and 50/00 Dollars ($104,013.50), plus costs, less any sums previously paid as provided herein, and (b) for any further relief necessary to enforce his rights under this Stipulation. Written notice of default shall be sent by regular mail to (i) Defendant 904 Allmen Avenue, Hinsdale, Illinois 60521; and (ii) Defendant's counsel Mickee M. Hennessy, Esq., Westerman Ball Ederer & Miller, LLP, 1201 RXR Plaza, Uniondale, New York 11556.

4. The Settlement Sum shall be held by the Trustee in a segregated "Earnest Money" account until the Approval Order becomes final and non-appealable under 28 U.S.C. §158(c)(2) and Bankruptcy Rule 8002.

5. Upon the Approval Order becoming final and non-appealable, the fourteenth day after the date of the entry of the Approval Order, the Trustee will transfer each installment of the Settlement Sum being held in the segregated "Earnest Money" account into the Debtors' estate account. If the Bankruptcy Court denies the entry of the Approval Order, the Trustee will return the Settlement Sum to Defendant's counsel without undue delay.

6. If the Court does not enter the Approval Order, this Stipulation will be null and void and none of the terms herein shall be usable as evidence by either party.

Releases

7. Upon the entry of the Approval Order, and the Trustee's receipt and clearance of each installment of the Settlement Sum, the Trustee and the estate release and forever discharge Defendant, his affiliated entities, agents, representatives, present or former officers, attorneys, directors, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature arising out of or relating to the Trustee's Claims. For purposes of clarification, nothing contained herein shall be construed to be a release by the Trustee of any claims that the Trustee may have or subsequently discover under 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2) and the Trustee is specifically not releasing any claims under 11 U.S.C. §550(a)(2).

8. Upon the entry of the Approval Order, Defendant releases, discharges and waives any and all claims against the Debtors' Estate, the Trustee and the Trustee's agents, attorneys, assigns and successors-in-interest from any and all claims, claims for relief, demands, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, and obligations of any nature, except as otherwise set forth in this Stipulation.

Effect of Settlement upon Timely-Filed Proofs of Claim

9. Upon execution of this Stipulation and the Trustee's receipt and clearance of the Settlement Sum, the Trustee and the estate specifically release, discharge and waive the Second Claim for Relief to disallow any proof of claim timely filed by Defendant pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §502(d).

10. The parties to the Stipulation acknowledge and agree that notwithstanding the release language contained in paragraphs 7 and 8, the Stipulation and the settlement memorialized herein are not intended, and should not be interpreted to otherwise release, waive or discharge either parties' rights, defenses, claims or objections with respect to any proof of claim that was timely-filed by Defendant in the Debtors' substantively-consolidated case. For the purposes of clarification, by entering into this Stipulation, the Trustee has not, is not intending and shall not be deemed to have validated, approved or otherwise allowed any proof of claim previously filed by Defendant and Defendant shall not be deemed to have waived any such claim.

11. Upon payment of the Settlement Sum, but no more than sixty (60) days after payment of the Settlement Sum, Defendant shall have the right to file and serve on Trustee's counsel a proof of claim or an amended proof of claim including the amount of the Settlement Sum paid hereunder, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §502(h). Defendant acknowledges and agrees that his Bankruptcy Code §502(h) claim shall be disallowed if it is not filed and served on Trustee's counsel within sixty (60) days of payment.

No Admission of Criminal or Civil Liability

12. It is understood and agreed that this Stipulation is entered into to avoid costly and protracted litigation. Neither the execution of this Stipulation, nor the payment of the Settlement Sum shall be construed as an admission of any criminal or civil liability on Defendant's part. For clarification, this paragraph is not intended and shall not be deemed to affect Defendant's obligation to make timely payment of the Settlement Sum or adversely affect the Trustee's rights and remedies under paragraph 2 in the event that Defendant fails to make timely payment of the Settlement Sum.

Miscellaneous

13. This Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts, with each part being deemed a part of the original document, and facsimile or other electronic signatures shall be deemed an original signature.

14. The person executing this Stipulation on behalf of each respective party warrants and represents that she or he is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver this Stipulation on behalf of such party.

15. This Stipulation may not be altered, modified, or changed unless in writing, signed by the parties or their counsel.

16. This Stipulation shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, except with respect to matters as to which federal law is applicable without regard to any conflicts of law principles.

17. The Trustee and Defendant are each responsible for their own costs and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this proceeding.
